"Your failure, were failure possible, will appall the Democracy of America, and your assured victory will thrill with delight and inspire with new courage the militant Democracy of the nation."—A. O. Stanley.

Democrats, you will feel either mighty "blue" or mighty good the day after the election. It depends on whether your party wins or loses. The result depends upon your voting next Tuesday. Let every Democrat do his duty.

Every vote cast for Stanley means one more mile of good road. Every mile of good road means six more children at school. Every child at school means a better salary earner and more money circulating in Kentucky. How are you going to vote?

Either over-confidence or apathy will be the only thing that will deprive the Democrats of a glorious victory this year. Next Tuesday is the day when this matter will be tried out. What say you, Democrats, shall we lie down or go ahead? Remember, every vote counts.

"If elected Governor of Kentucky I solemnly and earnestly pledge the people of the Commonwealth here and now that I will turn the calcium light upon the lobbyist and upon all who seek to procure positions of honor or privilege by any secret or unholy alliance with him."—A. O. Stanley.

It is claimed by the Progressives of Kentucky that the Louisville Herald has deserted their cause and they have therefore started a new political paper at Louisville called "The Bull Moose." An editorial announcement in the new paper says: "The Campaign Committee, with its chairman as editor, offers this paper as the only available way of presenting the party's cause."

By bluffing methods, noise and bluster, aided by a plentiful sum of hoodie, the Republican leaders hope to carry Ohio county next Tuesday by a large majority. It remains to be seen whether the stalwart voters of Ohio county can be influenced by such methods. Let the voter remember these things when he is "solicited" by some Republican worker who aims to "work" him.

The eyes of the President look down upon you. Where, oh where, is the Democrat, at this crucial hour, who will prove recalcitrant to his mighty chief? Inspiring as a candidate, greater as a patient and constructive statesman, he is greatest as the wise, fearless, far-seeing diplomat, preserving at once inviolate the honor of his country and the peace of half the world."—A. O. Stanley.

The eyes of the Nation are looking down upon Kentucky this year. This has always been known as an overwhelmingly Democratic State. Only by dissension and apathy in Democratic ranks has the State ever gone Republican for any office. There is no dissension now and we hope there is no apathy. To get out the vote—that is the important matter. Let every Democrat be at the polls and vote the ticket straight.

Every voter, regardless of politics, should vote for the tax amendment which will be a part of the ballot next Tuesday. It provides for a revision of our tax laws, making them equitable and fair to all alike, rich or poor. This amendment was ratified when it was voted on in 1912, but could not be adopted because it was not advertised beforehand as required by law. You will make no mistake by voting for it again.

A prominent Republican of Ohio county, while in Hartford last Saturday was asked if he was going to support one of the leading candidates on the Republican ticket. He replied no—that he "would vote for no man who would stand up on the sunny side of a building and listen to bootleggers until he got warped crooked." Name of either or both these men will be furnished privately by application at The Herald office.

The Republican campaign in this county, as voiced by its party newspaper organ here, has degenerated into a tirade of abuse and incrimination of Democratic candidates, as slanderous as it is uncalled for. The Republican leaders care nothing for the high personal character of the men they attack. It matters little to them whether their charges are true or not. Let the loyal Democrats of Ohio county rebuke these unworthy tactics by voting their party ticket straight.

The ass, editor of the Hartford Republican, recently added to its staff, takes up large space in that sheet in its last issue and proceeds to squish the very life out of the Hartford Herald at one fell and fearsome stroke—to his own satisfaction, anyhow. You can always recognize the ass, editor's stuff by its EAR marks and the loud noise it is intended to make. This is characteristic of associate (ass, for "short") editors and the public should bear with him patiently.

If the local Republican politicians (including the new ass, editor of the Hartford Republican, who dilates on "the poor, ignorant Hartford Herald," which he says has "made an ass of itself" and calls it a "fool" for so doing) were so cock-sure that Barksdale Hamlett ought to be indicted for obtaining money under false pretenses, why didn't some of them go before the recent grand jury, just adjourned, and indict Hamlett for so doing? Why didn't they back up their argument with prompt action? What were they afraid of? A majority of the grand jurors were Republicans.

There is an open secret in regard to the Republican party's success in the past and it will hold good if they succeed in the future. All Democrats would do well to take note of it. No political party can succeed at the polls unless its members stick together and vote the ticket straight. It is dissension and lassitude that causes political defeats. Republicans usually stick together and work energetically for the success of their party's ticket. Democrats have only to do the same to outdo them, because Democracy is more popular with the people than Republicanism.

NAILED.

More than a month ago Senator James went to Washington, it was said, to induce the President to speak in Kentucky this fall for Stanley and the State ticket. It was given out that Mr. Wilson would not consent to speak but would do the next best thing—he would write us a letter. No letter has come. At least none has been given out. In the meantime Stanley, James and the lesser lights have been going over the State appealing to the Democrats to vote her straight, Stanley, Hamlett, et al., and thus uphold the President's hands. The President don't seem to care a continental whether Kentucky upholds his hands or not. It seems that his hands are being held—up at home.—Hartford Republican.

There is just about as much truth in the above as anything else the Republican has said during this campaign. By turning to the first page of The Herald you will find an article containing the very letter the Republican referred to. This same letter was in the daily press and on the Hartford Republican's desk at the time this falsehood was written and printed. But what does the Republican care, if it thinks this will serve its purpose?

The Big Question.

The big question in Kentucky today is whether the people want to stand squarely behind Woodrow Wilson and the great things he has done for the country in the past few months. We believe that the people are so strongly with Wilson that they will give him an enthusiastic vote of confidence and encouragement in November by electing the Democratic ticket by the largest majority in recent years. A vote against the Democratic ticket is a vote against Woodrow Wilson. (Stanford Interior Journal).

Faith in one's self will remove mountains of difficulties.

VITAL QUESTIONS PUT TO KENTUCKY VOTERS

Which Should Be Answered By Their Vote On Next Tuesday.

Under Republican rule Wall Street controlled the money and credit of the Nation. The Democratic party destroyed that control.

ARE YOU WITH WALL STREET OR THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY?

The administration of Woodrow Wilson has extended the Parcel Post and reduced the cost of transportation.

ARE YOU FOR THE EXPRESS COMPANIES OR THE PARCEL POST?

Woodrow Wilson drove from Washington the paid lobbyists of special privilege who flourished under Republican rule.

ARE YOU FOR WOODROW WILSON OR THE LOBBYISTS?

If A. O. Stanley is elected Governor he will drive the lobbyist out of business in this State. The Republican party is the friend of the lobbyist.

ARE YOU FOR STANLEY OR THE "INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT"?

The Republican party levied taxes on the necessities of the poor. The Democratic party levied a tax upon the incomes of the rich.

ARE YOU FOR A TAX ON THE NECESSITIES OF LIFE OR FOR A TAX ON WEALTH?

Woodrow Wilson has preserved peace in this country without the sacrifice of honor or the lives of our splendid young men.

Are you not patriotic enough to rejoice that Woodrow Wilson is President?

A VOTE FOR STANLEY IS A VOTE TO SUSTAIN THE POLICIES OF WOODROW WILSON.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Oct. 25.—Farmers done cutting corn and about done sowing rye, wheat and winter oats. A large acreage sown. More rye and oats sown than ever before.

Mrs. Wm. Whobry, near Sunnydale, who has had a long spell of typhoid fever, is slowly improving.

Tice Baker has sold his timber on the Hartford road to Bond Bros. and it is being cut into railroad ties and hauled to Sunnydale as fast as cut. Messrs. Mollhorn & Sons are doing the sawing and it takes a lot of teams to move the timber as fast as they can saw it.

The "Holy Rollers" are still holding forth in a protracted meeting at Red Hill with no prospect of abatement. The meeting, according to report, broke up Sunday night with a free-for-all row and several people had their buggies torn up and sustained other damage. People who have been there say that shooting irons and bottles are very much in evidence and the air is almost thick with the fumes of blind tiger whiskey and sulphurous language on the outside. They also say that the services on the inside rival the best moving picture show in the country.

BEAVER DAM.

Oct. 25.—Mrs. Minerva Taylor, widow of the late Dr. S. D. Taylor, has bought Mr. Zeke Taylor's interest in the home farm that was owned jointly by the two brothers. The doctor conveyed his half of the farm to his wife by a will. She now owns the entire farm. Mr. Zeke Taylor will make his home with Mrs. Taylor and children for the present. Mrs. Taylor has also contracted with Mr. C. M. Taylor to erect a cottage dwelling house on her lot adjoining Burgess Austin, to be rented when completed. Mr. Taylor begins work this morning with several hands to have the work completed as soon as possible.

Mr. Martin Flener begins work this morning with Cooper Bros. in their department store. Mr. Flener is out of his mail contract but won't remain idle.

Mr. Cal Neighbors has opened a new coal bank on the Harry Taylor land, two miles from town.

Irish and sweet potatoes are 50c per bushel, good winesap apples 30c and 75c per bushel, eggs 22c per dozen, butter 20c and 25c per pound, and good prices are paid for labor.

Under the care of Prof. Stillwell we have one of the best conducted schools in Western Kentucky but regardless of the cheap living and good school, they will move.

Mr. George Trout sold his interest in the meat shop to Mr. John Arbuckle and left last week for the far West, in search of a better country. It seems that men are never satisfied. They begin in their young manhood to build up and prepare a home where with their family they can enjoy the evening of their lives in comfort, but ere the meridian of life comes, they become dissatisfied and make a sacrifice of their goods and move to some other country.

But while some move away, others come, so there is not an empty house in town at present.

Mr. Ben Gray is very low at present with lung trouble. Ben can live but a short time without a change for the better.

Last week we had the pleasure of a visit to the homes of some of our friends out in Union neighborhood. The beautiful country homes along the way with the green fields of wheat constituted the most beautiful scenery that our eyes had beheld of late. The farms looked to be one-third in wheat and the cereal was never known to be further advanced in growth this early in the season. The farmers in this vicinity have a fine crop of corn which they will soon begin to gather. In fact, I never saw a section in a more prosperous condition than Union neighborhood at present. The greatest handicap to that neighborhood is the hill known as Kate's hill, on the Dixie highway, two miles from town. There is a ledge of rock near the top that is hard to pull up with a loaded wagon. Much money has been spent on that hill but to no purpose. If the County Court would appropriate $150 and send an engineer out there with what help the farmers of the vicinity will give, that hill could be graded down and made a road that would never burden travel in that section any more.

AN EARNEST APPEAL TO OHIO COUNTY DEMOCRATS

Election day is but a short time away. In a few brief hours the die will have been cast. Kentuckians will know whether, during the next four years, they will be under the management of the Democrats or the Republicans.

The issues have all been discussed. Every Kentuckian knows, or ought to know, who the contending candidates are and what they stand for. The time for action is at hand. The time for thought is past. It is the duty of every Democrat in Kentucky, every man who loves freedom and the rule of the people, not only to go to the polls himself but to see that his neighbor goes and casts a vote for Stanley and the rest of the ticket.

If, Mr. Democratic voter, there is a man living beside you who, for one reason or another, figures that his vote will not be needed, go after that man. Make him go with you to the polls. The Republicans are working tooth and nail. They are spending money like water in an effort to keep down the Democratic majority. A small Democratic majority will please the Republicans almost as much as would the election of their ticket, for if the majority for the Democrats is slight, the Republicans, though defeated, will still be able to say that the country is turning toward Republicanism and that a Republican President will be elected next year.

Should the race be close, every Democrat in the State ought to hang his head in shame. We have the votes. Let's cast them. Let no Democrat be compelled to say to himself on the morning of November 3d, "I wish I had gone to the polls."

STANLEY AS GOVERNOR MEANS MUCH FOR STATE

If the Democrats will only come to the polls on November 2d and vote for Stanley and the entire Democratic ticket, there is no earthly reason why the entire ticket should not win by an immense majority. We all know now that both Senate and House are absolutely safely Democratic. Then what is the use of electing Morrow Governor? He would only be a figurehead. His vetoes would amount to nothing, for they could be passed over his head at any time. With Stanley as Governor the Democratic party will be in a position to do some valuable Democratic legislation. The State would then receive adequate compensation from its lawmakers. If Morrow should be elected, all the people could hope for would be time and money thrown to the winds. Our Republican friends who have the good of the Old Commonwealth at heart, and especially the independent voters, can readily see the uselessness in voting for Morrow.

Vote for Stanley and the entire Democratic ticket and thereby render your State valuable service.

Acquitted Of Charge.

Ohio Circuit Court, Com'th. vs. Jesse Fulkerson, et al., statement of Commonwealth Attorney.

Careful inquiry into the facts of this matter have convinced me and the County Attorney that the defendants, Sam Robertson, Frank Bellow and Robert Swain, were not present or participating in the matters charged in this indictment and it may be dismissed as to these three defendants.

October 26, 1915.

BEN D. RINGO,
Commonwealth's Attorney.

ILLEGAL SALE OF LIQUOR SHOULD BE A FELONY

A Law Which Calls For Enactment At Next Legislative Session.

The tragic loss of three lives at Hickman as the result of the operation of one blind tiger is not at all surprising. Blood has been shed in many other localities of Kentucky, and a human life has been sacrificed, simply because some contemptible cur set up a gain of a few dollars for his own filthy purse as of greater importance and as a more sacred right than the expressed will of the people, crystallized into the law of the land. Jail and fines have no terror for the average bootlegger, and as the Times has frequently suggested, the evil will never be broken up until the Legislature makes the illegal sale of liquor a felony, punishable, even at the minimum, by a long term at hard labor in the penitentiary. Why can't the next General Assembly enact such a law?—[Todd County Times.]

The News has long been contending for the enactment of such a measure, and hopes that it will receive early and favorable consideration from the next session of the Legislature.

Punishment, other than capital, is intended both to reform the punished and to deter others from a commission of the same or similar offenses. In other words the punishment must fit the crime.

A casual knowledge of conditions in any "dry" city of Kentucky reveals the fact that the present statute against the illicit sale of liquor falls short of doing this. The jail sentence and fine assessed against bootleggers is thoroughly inadequate to cope with the situation, especially since it is difficult to secure convictions in this character of cases, and a bootlegger may ply his nefarious trade for months with only occasional interruptions from the courts. We believe that if our distiller and brewer friends in both the Democratic and Republican parties are as deeply in love with the once despised county unit law as they now profess to be, they will join hands with the original advocates of the measure and put through the next session of the legislature this much needed change to make the statute effective.—[Elizabethtown News.]

OLATON.

Oct. 25.—Quite a number of people were in Olaton Saturday attending the sale of the real estate owned by the late W. T. Young at this place. Two tracts of land and 8 town lots were sold. The land brought $2,110. One lot, near the church, known as the Dr. Felix lot, sold for $510. This lot was purchased by Robert Duff. Elmer Miller bought the two tracts of land containing 125 acres. The other lots brought good prices. They were bought by Morgan Patterson, Lee Patterson, Arthur Mitchell, A. N. Wing and Robert Arms. The land and lots brought $3,110.

Mr. Robert Duff and wife, of Sulphur Springs, are visiting their son, Robert Duff, of this place.

Mr. Carson Duncan went to Springfield, Ill., last Friday.

Dr. J. S. Bean and wife, of Horse Branch, are visiting Mr. W. B. McDaniel and family.

Mrs. Maud Moseley, of Springfield, Ill., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. May.

Rev. Aaron Ross filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church here Saturday and Sunday.

A few more days and it will be decided who our next Governor will be. I predict that A. O. Stanley will be elected by the largest majority of any candidate for Governor for many years.

There was a large attendance at Sunday School yesterday.

Card Of Thanks To Hartford People.

It is with the deepest appreciation and tenderest love that we would thank the people of Hartford for their love, hospitality and kindness to our sweet girl, Edna Louis, during her stay in Hartford and after her return home.

Edna loved you. One of her happiest delights was to tell of a pleasant scene or action which took place in "Hartford Town." Even during her most serious illness her heart and mind were with you.

After enduring most patiently many weeks of pain and suffering, caused by a malignant tumor, Edna said, "Mary, we have an invitation from Lucile Taylor." It was but little more than a day when Edna accepted Lucile's invitation, and responded to it with a smile.
